How to get to Australian Catholic University Strathfield Campus

ACU Shuttle Bus

There is a free shuttle bus running between Strathfield Station and the Strathfield Campus. Last trip to the station from Strathfield Campus is at 8:45 pm.

By Bus

Sydney Buses offer two services- 407 and 483 - from the Strathfield Plaza side of the station. Both services operate at approximately 15 to 20 minute intervals and stop on Barker Road, near the main entrance to the campus.

Train

The Strathfield Campus is located near Strathfield Station, which is one of Sydney's main interchanges for trains and buses. Trains run regularly to Strathfield Station, which is on the Inner West, Northern, North Shore and Western and South train lines. The University is an approximately 20 minute walk from the station, via Albert Road.

Car

The Strathfield Campus is close to main roads, parking is available on campus and vehicle access is only via Barker Road.

- if travelling west along Parramatta Rd, turn left into Leicester Street, opposite Concord Road
- if travelling south along Homebush Bay Drive, turn left into Arthur Street, before Strathfield Golf Course
- if travelling east along the Hume Highway, turn left into Wallis Avenue.

Parking

Free parking is available on Campus.
